

Department of Children and Youth Affairs

Inventory of Data Sources on Children's Lives

A24 DSP Employment Services Registration Form

Data owner	Department of Social Protection (www.welfare.ie)
Brief description	Applicant details are collected for registry, including work history, skills, special needs and social inclusion.
Primary function of data	Creation or maintenance of registry of Job Seekers/Job Changers, or individuals who are seeking training or guidance.
Key classificatory variables	PPSN; ID Other; Sex; DOB; County; Income; Disability; Traveller
Themes/domains	Education
Unit of observation	Individual
Start date of data collection	1988/89. The form has evolved over time to collect additional data. Current version is in place since approximately 2012.
Frequency of data collection	Continuously
Data format	Separate record for each individual
Method of data collection	Paper-based form completed by client. Form is pre-populated with data for existing clients who make changes where appropriate.
Access/further information	Not applicable
Access/further information	Department of Social Protection (www.welfare.ie) Publications available at: http://www.welfare.ie/en/Pages/publications_home.aspx
Notes	Aggregated information from this data may be included in labour market analysis. Coverage of registry is approximately 690,000 registered clients.